IOWA VOLLEYBALL

CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA

The University of Iowa opened its award-winning Carver-Hawkeye Arena in January 1983. The 15,400-seat, oval-shaped arena is one of the finest multi-purpose facilities in the world and one of the 25 largest university-owned arenas in America. It is the largest volleyball facility in the Big Ten and boasts a top 30 national attendance ranking each year.

Twenty-eight years after it first opened, Carver-Hawkeye Arena was the beneficiary of a $47 million revitalization project. The renovation and addition included a multi-court practice complex, state of the art 12,000-square foot strength and conditioning center, and new locker rooms for the Iowa volleyball program.

The renovation also included a drop-down curtain in the arena bowl designed to create an intimate atmosphere during Iowa volleyball matches. The capacity with the curtains dropped is 8,715 – larger than any volleyball facility in the Big Ten.

The extensive renovation complemented the new scoreboard and video walls installed inside the arena prior to the 2006 season. The state of the art equipment features two video walls with live action and instant replay capabilities. The scoreboards at each end of the court are 48 feet in length and feature a 256 x 72 Led Matrix display area, along with the usual scoreboard display areas for scores, time remaining and team and individual statistics.

Iowa volleyball's playing environment was improved with the Taraflex Sport M Plus floor. The team received the portable flooring system in the fall of 2013. The Hawkeyes are one of six college programs to implement the floor. The top of the line playing surface helps increase player safety and allows diving athletes to slide across the floor with ease. The Taraflex Sport M Plus floor has been the playing surface of Olympic volleyball since 1976.

The team's newest upgrade came in 2015. Carver-Hawkeye Arena's LED Daktronics scoreboard was unveiled at Iowa's 2016 home opener against Western Illinois on Sept. 2. A new four-sided center hung video system was the centerpiece of the renovations. Four auxiliary displays, two at each end of the arena, were also installed as part of Carver-Hawkeye Arena's upgrades.

BOND SHYMANSKY HEAD COACH THIRD SEASON

Bond Shymansky — a University of Iowa graduate and Iowa City native — has renewed excitement surrounding the Hawkeye volleyball program in his first two years at the helm.

In 2015, Shymansky led the Hawkeyes to their best overall start since 2006 with a 10-3 mark in nonconference action. Iowa won eight straight matches from Sept. 6-19 — the longest streak for the program since 2006 — and defeated the Cyclones, 3-1, for the first time since Sept. 13, 1997. The Hawkeyes won eight matches in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, marking the most home wins for the program since 2000, and started the season with a perfect 7-0 mark on Mediacom Court — the best start at home for the Hawkeyes since 1993.

The Hawkeyes saw a significant increase in attendance in Shymansky's second year, setting two top-10 attendance marks in 2015. The Hawkeyes downed the Cyclones in front of the fifth-largest crowd in program history (2,488) on Sept. 11, before hosting the nationally ranked Huskers on Sept. 23 in front of 2,447 fans — the sixth-largest crowd in Iowa volleyball history.

Mikaela Gunderson and junior Lexie Keala etched their names into the Iowa record book in 2015. Gunderson ended her career with a .294 attack percentage — 16 points higher than the previous school record of .278 (Alessandra Dietz, 2014). Keala tallied 1,247 assists in her first year as a Hawkeye, moving her into eighth on Iowa's all-time assists list. She also earned the first Big Ten Setter of the Week honor of her career for her play at the Comfort Suites Challenge on Sept. 11-12. Keala became the first Hawkeye to earn a Big Ten weekly award since Bethany Yeager in 2013, and the first to win a weekly setter award.

The Hawkeyes also succeeded in the classroom in Shymansky's second year. Following the regular season, five Hawkeyes — Mikaela Gunderson, Jess Janota, Alyssa Klostermann, Alli O'Deen, and Erin Radke — received Academic All-Big Ten recognition for maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

In his 13th season overall as a head coach, Shymansky guided the Hawkeyes to a 14-17 overall record and a 6-14 mark in Big Ten Conference action. He has amassed a 304-126 record and .707 win percentage over 13 seasons, earning his 300th win milestone on Oct. 31, 2014, with a 3-0 sweep of Maryland on the road.

The program's six conference victories in 2014 were the most for the program since 2008. Four of the Big Ten wins came consecutively, as the Hawkeyes defeated Maryland (3-0), Rutgers (3-1), Indiana (3-2) and No. 12-ranked Purdue (3-1). It is the longest conference win streak for the program in 20 years, dating back to 1994 when Iowa won eight straight matches and went on to clinch a berth to the NCAA Tournament. The team's win over the Boilermakers marked the team's first ranked win since 2012.

Alessandra Dietz and Alex Lovell wrote their names in the Iowa volleyball record book in the final season of their careers under Shymansky. Dietz broke Jen Barcus' eight-year-old career attack percentage record (.276), finishing her career with a .278 attack percentage. She also broke the program's five-year-old single match attack percentage record, hitting .882 with 15 kills in Iowa's 3-0 win at South Dakota State, and ended her career ranked 11th all-time with 274 career blocks. Lovell closed her career ninth all-time with 1,279 kills, and earned the team's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

Seven student-athletes — Julianne Blomberg, Dietz, Alyssa Klostermann, Erin Leppik, Lovell, Alli O'Deen, and Emily Yanny — were named to the 2014 Big Ten Fall Academic All-Conference team.

University of Iowa Director of Athletics Gary Barta announced Shymansky as the volleyball program's ninth head coach on January 31, 2014.

"The Big Ten is the most competitive volleyball conference in the country," Barta said. "I was thrilled when Bond agreed to lead our program. He has a strong track record as a head coach in the sport of volleyball and he has deep Iowa ties."

"This is such an unbelievable opportunity for me as an Iowa City native and Hawkeye alum. But more importantly, it's a huge opportunity as a volleyball coach to be a Hawkeye and match the level of determination, intensity, commitment and expectation that the administration and Gary Barta have for the volleyball program's future success," Shymansky said.

Shymansky's 12-year resume as a head coach boasted 24 all-conference headcoaches, three conference players of the year, two conference freshmen of the year, 17 AVCA All-Americans, two AVCA Region Freshman of the Year selections, and eight professional volleyball players.

Shymansky arrived at the University of Iowa after spending five seasons (2008-13) at the helm of the Marquette volleyball program, where he has developed a winning culture and created a postseason tradition. On his watch, the Golden Eagles earned their first NCAA berth and NCAA victory in school history in 2011, and returned to the postseason in 2012 and 2013. Marquette also won its first Big East regular season title and Big East Tournament championship in 2013.

Shymansky was instrumental in the accomplishment of many more firsts for the Marquette volleyball program. He developed 10 honorable mention All-Americans and the program's first third team All-American, helped the program accomplish its first-ever Top 25 national ranking and a No. 8 RPI rating in 2013, and signed the first top 25 ranked recruiting class in program history.

Shymansky, a two-time Big East Conference and Regional Coach of the Year, also understands the importance of academic success. The Golden Eagles posted a team grade point averages of 3.3 or higher each season of his tenure.

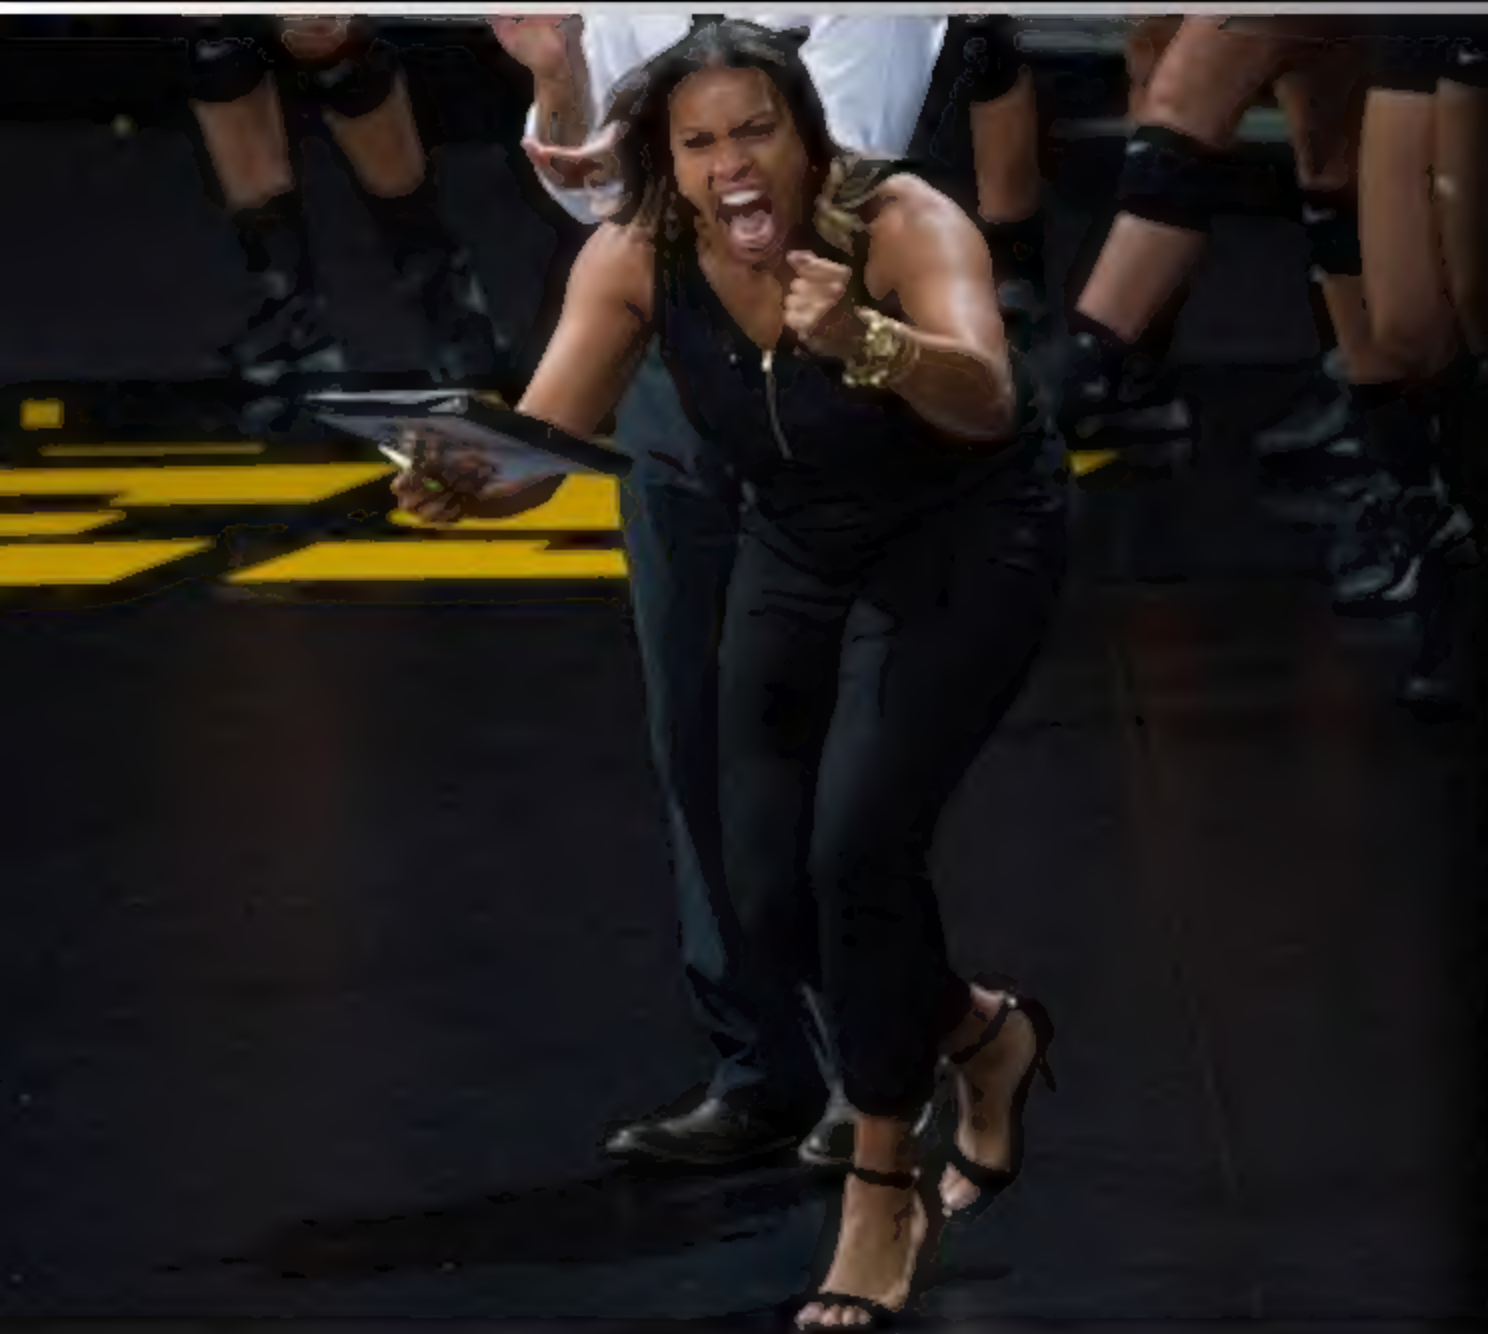

Before Marquette, Shymansky spent seven seasons as the head coach at Georgia Tech (2002-09), where he guided the Yellow Jackets to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including Elite Eight and Sweet Sixteen finishes, and three Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In his tenure, Georgia Tech posted an overall mark of 172-64 (.729), including a 96-38 (.716) record in ACC action, and earned No. 4 and No. 6 RPI rankings.

Shymansky produced a first team All-American and a three-time second team All-American at Georgia Tech, signed a Top 5 recruiting class, and was named ACC Conference and Regional Coach of the Year.

Shymansky has a deep understanding of what it means to be a Hawkeye, as he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications in 1995 and a Master of Arts in English Education in 1997 from the UI. From 1991-93, Shymansky was a setter and outside hitter on the UI men's volleyball club team.

An Iowa City resident, Shymansky has a daughter, Corrina, and two sons, Nicholas and Bond.

MICHAELA FRANKLIN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH THIRD SEASON

Associate head coach Michaela Franklin enters her third season with the University of Iowa volleyball program in 2016. Head coach Bond Shymansky announced her addition to his staff on Feb. 25, 2014. She is the recruiting coordinator and defensive coordinator for the Hawkeyes.

In 2015, Franklin helped the Hawkeyes to their best overall start since 2006 with a 10-3 mark in nonconference action. Iowa won eight straight matches from Sept. 6-19 — the longest streak for the program since 2006 — and defeated the Cyclones, 3-1, for the first time since Sept. 13, 1997. The Hawkeyes won eight matches in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, marking the most home wins for the program since 2000, and started the season with a perfect 7-0 mark on Mediacom Court — the best start at home for the Hawkeyes since 1993.

Mikaela Gunderson and junior Loxley Keala etched their names into the Iowa record book in 2015. Gunderson ended her career with a .294 attack percentage — 16 points higher than the previous school record of .278 (Alessandra Dietz, 2014). Keala tallied 1,247 assists in her first year as a Hawkeye, moving her into eighth on Iowa's all-time assists list. She also earned the first Big Ten Setter of the Week honor of her career for her play at the Comfort Suites Challenge on Sept. 11-12. Keala became the first Hawkeye to earn a Big Ten weekly award since Bethany Yeager in 2013, and the first to win a weekly setter award.

Franklin helped guide the Hawkeyes to a 14-17 record overall and a 6-14 mark in Big Ten Conference play in her first season.

The program's six conference victories in 2014 were the most for the program since 2008. Four of the Big Ten wins came consecutively, as the Hawkeyes defeated Maryland (3-0), Rutgers (3-1), Indiana (3-2) and No. 12-ranked Purdue (3-1). It is the longest conference win streak for the program in 20 years, dating back to 1994 when Iowa won eight straight matches and went on to clinch a berth to the NCAA Tournament. The team's win over the Boilermakers marked the team's first ranked win since 2012.

Alessandra Dietz and Alex Lovell wrote their names in the Iowa volleyball record book in the final season of their careers. Dietz broke Jen Barcus' eight-year-old career attack percentage record (.276), finishing her career with a .278 attack percentage. She also broke the program's five-year-old single match attack percentage record, hitting .882 with 15 kills in Iowa's 3-0 win at South Dakota State, and ended her career ranked 11th all-time with 274 career blocks. Lovell closed her career ninth all-time with 1,279 kills, and earned the team's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

The Hawkeyes performed at a high level in the classroom as well. Seven student-athletes — Julianne Blomberg, Dietz, Alyssa Klostermann, Erin Leppke, Lovell, Alli O'Deen, and Emily Yanny — were named to the 2014 Big Ten Fall Academic All-Conference Team for earning a letter, being in their second academic year at Iowa, and maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better.

Franklin came to Iowa after spending the 2013 season as the head volleyball coach at Green Bay. The Phoenix accomplished a 14-14 overall record and a 9-5 mark in Horizon League action. She had four players receive Horizon League honors at the end of the year, including three all-league selections and the conference Freshman of the Year. It was the second time in Green Bay history, and first time since 2003, that three earned all-league nods, and the first time in school history the Phoenix had a Freshman of the Year and a total of four postseason honorees.

Prior to her time at Green Bay, Franklin spent four seasons coaching alongside Shymansky as an assistant coach at Marquette. While there, she served as the team's recruiting coordinator, trained the outside hitters and was the defense coordinator. The Golden Eagles appeared in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments in 2011 and 2012, and placed second in the Big East Conference in 2012 with a 13-2 record.

Franklin began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Northern Illinois from 2006-08.

Franklin played collegiate volleyball at Kansas State from 2002-04. She helped the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship and three NCAA Tournament appearances. The Lincoln, Neb., native graduated with a bachelor's degree in family studies and human services in 2005.

BRE PAYTON
ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

University of Iowa head volleyball coach Bond Strydomsky announced the elevation of Bre Payton from director of operations to interim assistant coach on March 2, 2016.

"She is one of the few coaches whose playing resume matches her coaching ability," said Strydomsky. "As an All-American setter she demonstrated leadership, drive, focus, and the will to win. Those same traits will be invaluable for us in her role as our offensive coordinator."

"Growing up in Iowa, Bre knows what it means to be a true Hawkeye. She will bring optimism, passion, grit, and energy into our program. We look forward to her continued impact on our program."

The Waterloo, Iowa, native joined the Hawkeye coaching staff following a year as a graduate assistant at Minnesota State, Mankato. Payton's duties included travel arrangement, meal planning, coaching, analyzing film, and recruiting. While there, she earned her master's degree in sports management.

"I'm more than grateful for the opportunity to be an assistant coach here at Iowa," said Payton. "It's a privilege to be able to coach in my home state and in the Big Ten. I am excited to see what the future has in store for Iowa volleyball."

Payton played collegiate volleyball at Northern Iowa. The four-year starting setter earned first team all-conference honors and conference player of the year recognition in three consecutive seasons (2009-2011). She is a two-time second team All-American (2010-11) and an honorable mention All-American (2009).

She completed her degree at UNI in movement and exercise sciences: sport psychology in 2012.

EMILY SPARKS
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
FIRST SEASON

University of Iowa head volleyball coach Bond Strydomsky announced the addition of Iowa City, Iowa, native Emily Sparks on March 2, 2016. Sparks will serve as the director of operations.

Sparks joins the staff after two years as a staff member in the Iowa Athletic Department. She has served as a learning assistant for Academic Services, a sports operations coordinator, and spent time working with the event management team since June of 2014.

The Iowa City High School graduate earned her Bachelor of Science degree in exercise studies from Upper Iowa University in May 2013. She received her Master of Science degree in sport management from Western Illinois University in December 2014.

Sparks played collegiate volleyball at Upper Iowa University from 2009-2013. She is a three-time Northern Sun Conference All-Academic Team selection (2010-12), and a Northern Sun Hyles Brand All-Academic with Distinction Award recipient (2013).

PETER GUSTIN
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

Peter Gustin is in his first season as a volunteer assistant coach for the University of Iowa volleyball program.

The Moline, Illinois, native brings both coaching and playing experience to the staff. Gustin played for Lincoln-Way East High School (2002-2006) while competing nationally for Ultimate Volleyball Club (2004-2006). He later attended the University of Iowa where he played for the UI's Men's Club Volleyball team (2006-2010).

Gustin then shifted his love for the game to coaching. He spent summer of 2015 coaching the Iowa Boys Regional Youth Team in Des Moines, Iowa, and later coached team camp at the University of Kentucky. From 2012-2016, Gustin served as the Solon High School girls varsity head coach, as well as the school's language arts instructor. While at Solon, he led his team to a Class 4A State Runner-Up finish in 2012 and 2013. In 2014, he clinched a 3A State Championship while being named Class 3A Coach of the Year, 3A Southeast District Coach of the Year, and 4A Northeast District Coach of the Year.

In the fall of 2014, Gustin began coaching for Adrenaline Volleyball Academy- 15 Box. In 2015, his team won the Midwest JVA Challenge and placed 14th out of 92 teams at the AAU Girls Junior National Volleyball Championships. In 2016, Peter coached his team to the USJV Girls Junior National Championships and JVA World Challenge-open division, leading his team to an Iron Region Championship and JVA Midwest Runner-Up finish.

Gustin graduated from the University of Iowa in 2010 with degrees in both English and journalism & mass communication. He has his teaching certificate in secondary English education.

GARY BARTA ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

A record-setting, perfect regular season, which included a Big Ten West Division title for the Hawkeye football team, set the tone for a successful 2015-16 for the University of Iowa Athletics Department, as Gary Barta completed his first decade as the UI's Director of Athletics.

As Barta enters his 11th year as the leader of Hawkeye athletics, he does so with a five-year contract extension and recognition as the 2015-16 Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year, presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

In the past year, Iowa athletics staff, coaches, and, most importantly, Hawkeye student-athletes, have continued to raise the bar in their daily approach to: Win. Graduate. Do it Right. There is tremendous momentum surrounding the entire athletics program in all three areas.

The Hawkeye football team earned a spot in the Big Ten Conference Championship game after an undefeated regular season and made its sixth Rose Bowl appearance. The Iowa men's and women's basketball teams advanced to postseason play, and the Iowa wrestling program was once again in the thick of the battle for the national title.

UI student-athletes continued to attack their work in the classroom—the "Graduate" leg of the Hawkeyes' three-legged stool. All of Iowa's 24 sports teams again exceeded the NCAA's Annual Progress Report while holding steady their record, established a year ago, with a 88 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR). The average grade point average for all student-athletes reached an impressive

The "Do it Right" column was filled with success as well. Under Barta's leadership, the Hawkeyes continued their significant service and contribution to the greater Iowa City area and beyond, taking a leadership position in matters related to student-athlete welfare. Iowa remains among the handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully maintains its status as 100 percent self-supporting.

Iowa's "Win" also occurred at the turnstiles, where the Iowa wrestling program once again led the nation in home attendance. Iowa was one of just five programs in the country to rank in the top 25 in home attendance for football, women's basketball, and men's basketball. When the Hawkeye baseball team reached the Big Ten Tournament championship game, more than 10,000 Hawkeye fans were in Omaha to cheer on the Hawkeyes on a Sunday afternoon.

While the record-setting performance by the football team led the way in 2015-16, a number of other Hawkeye athletics teams also enjoyed outstanding success.

- The 2016 Rose Bowl marked Iowa's 13th postseason bowl game under the leadership of Kirk Ferentz and its ninth January bowl event. Junior defensive back Desmond King earned unanimous consensus All-America honors while winning the Jim Thorpe Trophy and was recognized as the Tatum Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. He is Iowa's 23rd consensus All-American. Fifteen Hawkeye players earned All-Big Ten recognition.

- Lisa Bluder's women's basketball team advanced to postseason play for the sixth straight season while fielding a very young team comprised mainly of underclassmen. Three Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, six earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition, and junior Abby Biterhalt garnered Academic All-America honors for the second straight year.

- The Iowa men's basketball team advanced in the NCAA Tournament for the third straight season, winning its opening game for the second consecutive year before a second round loss to the eventual national champion, Villanova. Coach Fran McCaffery's team was ranked as high as third in the nation while earning a second straight third-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. Two Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, including first-team selection Jared Uthoff.

- Jared Uthoff (men's basketball) and Abby Biterhalt (women's basketball), were named Academic All-Americans of the Year for their respective sports. Iowa became the first Division I program to claim both the male and female basketball recipients of the award in the same season. Uthoff is the first Iowa men's basketball student-athlete to earn both consensus All-America and Academic All-America honors.

- Tim Brandt's Iowa wrestling squad finished second in the Big Ten and fifth at the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeyes crowned two Big Ten individual champions, featured three NCAA finalists, and had six All-Americans. Iowa wrestling set a national dual meet attendance record as 42,287 were on hand to see the Hawkeyes hand top-ranked Oklahoma State an 18-16 defeat in Kinnick Stadium to open the season.

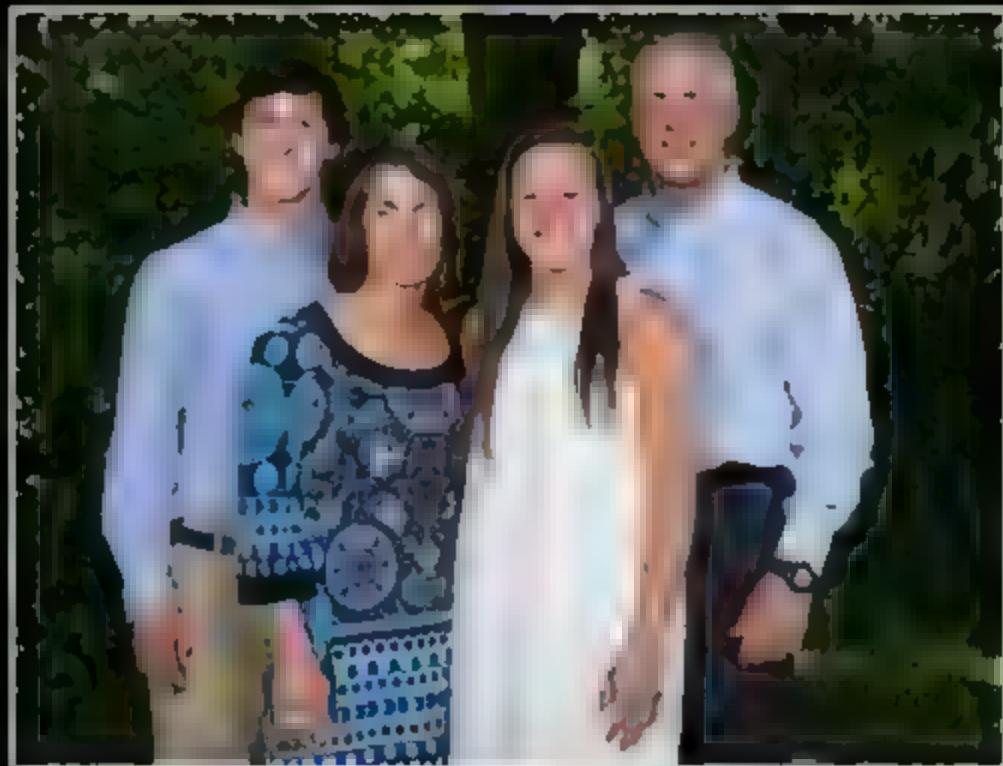

- Iowa baseball made another late season change under coach Rick Heller, teaching the Big Ten Tournament title game for the first time since 2010. Only a one-run loss in the championship game kept the Hawkeyes from a second straight NCAA Regional appearance. Two Hawkeyes earned first-team All-Big Ten honors and three players were selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft, moving the three-year total to 11 under Heller—the most for the program since 1991-93.

- Coach Megan Menzies's women's golf program was represented in the national tournament as senior Amy Iken competed as an individual after earning first-team All-Big Ten honors. Iken became the first UI women's golfer to compete in NCAA postseason competition since 1998 and just the second in program history.

- The UI's men's golf team, under the direction of second-year head coach Tyler Smith, competed in its eighth straight NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes placed second in the Big Ten Championships as three Hawkeyes—Juniors Carson Schaale and Raymond Knoll, along with true freshman Matthew Woller—earned all-tournament recognition.

- Lindsay Libby's Gymnastics advanced to the NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, hosting the event in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in 2016. Iowa recorded dual meet wins over five conference foes, including three Big Ten teams who were nationally ranked at the time. Two Hawkeyes were named to the All-Championship team, with Mollie Drenth representing Iowa as an individual competitor at the NCAA Championships. Drenth, Iowa's first NCAA Championships qualifier since 2011, placed third on beam at the NCAA Championship, earning first-team All-America accolades. She is the program's first All-American since 2004.

- JB Rolfe's UI men's gymnastics squad placed fifth at the Big Ten Championships and saw Matt Leachman garner first-team All-Big Ten recognition. The Hawkeyes fell short of making team finals at the NCAA Championships, but saw five student-athletes advance to individual event finals. The youthful roster excelled in the classroom, tying a school record with nine Academic All-Big Ten selections. Senior Jack Boyle was also named a finalist for the Nissen-Emory Award, an award given to the country's most outstanding senior gymnast in the gym and in the classroom.

Joey Woody's second season as head coach of the UI's men's and women's track and field teams resulted in a record number of performers advancing to the NCAA Outdoor Championships. A total of 15 Hawkeyes advanced to the national championships, including Big Ten champions Briana Guillory (200 meters), Aaron Mallett (110 meter hurdles), men's 400-meter relay, and women's 1,600-meter relay.

The Iowa men's and women's swimming and diving teams both tallied top-40 finishes at the NCAA Championships under head coach Marc Long. The program had two student-athletes—junior Emma Saugstad (700 breast) and senior Roman Tsimov (100 breast, 200 breast)—gather three All-America distinctions. Ten student-athletes were named CSCAA Scholar All-Americans and 35 earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition.

Under third-year head coach Andrew Carter, the Iowa rowing program continued to make significant strides forward. The Hawkeyes were represented in the top-20 national rankings for the first time in six seasons. The squad placed fifth in the Big Ten Championships with 95 points, its highest championship point total since 2009. Senior Beth Baustian earned second-team Pocock All-America accolades, becoming the fourth All-American in program history and the second in the last three seasons. The Hawkeyes excelled off the water with 20 Academic All-Big Ten selections, the most for the program since 2000, and five Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association Scholar Athletes.

Under second-year head coach Bond Shymansky, the UI volleyball team compiled a 10-3 record in nonconference action—the best overall start for the program since 2006 (11-1). The Hawkeyes won eight straight matches from Sept. 6-19, including a 3-1 victory over Iowa State — Iowa's first win over the Cyclones since 1997 — and a 3-1 win over No. 25 Texas A&M.

In October 2011, the NCAA reported that Iowa's student-athletes had tied the record set the previous year by posting a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) score of 89 percent. That mark ranked six points better than the national average.

The NCAA also noted the UI had posted a federal graduation rate of 71 percent. This was also a record, three points better than the national average—and tops the three State of Iowa Board of Regents' institutions.

Last May, the NCAA reported that all 24 of Iowa's sports programs were comfortably above the Academic Progress Rate (APR) threshold. The NCAA also singled out the UI's volleyball, men's golf, and women's swimming and diving for APR scores that ranked in the top 10 percent of their peer group. Those three teams have each registered a perfect score of 1,000 in each of the past four years.

Along with Lithoff and Distenhof earning Academic All-American of the Year accolades, the Hawkeyes also boasted Academic All-Americans in football (senior defensive back Jordan Loman) and wrestling (junior Nathan Bunch). In addition, 167 UI student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten recognitions throughout the year, and wrestler Alex Meyer earned academic recognition from the National Wrestling coaches Association (NWCA).

"Doing It Right" for Barta and the more than 225 staff of the UI Athletics Department is a charge that encompasses a long and varied list of responsibilities, including maintaining the department's status as one of a handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully operates its sports programs and auxiliary enterprises in a fiscally responsible manner and without any institutional or taxpayer financial support. The UI provides a superior experience for the more than 650 talented student-athletes who participate in the program annually and the more than one million friends and fans of the UI who attend Hawkeye events on the UI campus while being responsible and productive citizens of the greater Iowa City and University of Iowa community.

In 2016-17, Barta will be responsible for an annual operating budget that will exceed $100 million for the first time, with 100 percent of the revenue side of that budget generated by the UI Athletics Department. The majority of that revenue comes as a result of success in traditional revenue sources: income as a result of membership in the Big Ten Conference (including television), sales of tickets to athletic events on the UI campus, and donations to the National I-Club.

The National I-Club donations list grown into a critical piece of the financial pie managed by Barta, exemplified by continued years of outright fundraising support exceeding $26 million annually. That philanthropic support has been critical to the long list of athletics facilities that have either been built or renovated during Barta's 10 years on campus.

That list includes:

- Construction of the recently-completed $55 million Stew and Luffe Women Football Performance Center
- $47 million renovation of the men's basketball arena
- Installation of a new men's football stadium
- Installation of a new women's basketball arena
- Renovation of the indoor soccer arena
- Renovation of the men's and women's tennis courts
- Construction of the Hawk Family Community Ice Center
- Renovation of the Hawk Family Community Ice Center
- Turf replacement at Grotz Field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program
- Renovation of the Platz Tennis Complex
- Installation of artificial turf on the practice field
- Renovation of the playing surface of the Hawk Family Community Ice Center

FRY fest

Providing the resources for UI student-athletes and coaches to be successful is a priority for Barta and his senior management team. That process includes providing state-of-the-art facilities, which is why Barta continues to work closely with institutional leadership on the finalization of a comprehensive master plan for the facilities available to the Hawkeyes.

Additional facility projects on the horizon include:

- Center-hung videobanks in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, along with new sound and lighting systems being installed this summer
- A north end zone project at Kinnick Stadium that will provide additional premium seating options and additional upgrades
- Installation of a new bonded track in the UI Recreation Building, home of UI indoor track programs
- Renovations to the Gordon Athletics Learning Center, home to the UI's Athletic Student Services staff
- Stadium upgrades to the baseball (Dwight Banks Field) and softball (Bob Pearl Field) facilities
- A new clubhouse at the UI's Finkbine Golf Course
- Additional Olympic sport improvements for soccer, gymnastics, volleyball, and other teams.

Iowa's contributions to the greater Iowa City community go far beyond the multi-million dollars of economic impact generated as a result of the staging of hundreds of annual regular season, postseason, and special events annually. Barta and UI student-athletes, coaches, and staff are also active citizens, logging thousands of hours of community service and spearheading efforts to support a wide variety of causes ranging from construction of the UI's new Children's Hospital, to the UI's extremely successful Dance Marathon, to involvement with Coaches vs. Cancer.

Iowa football has been involved with the Children's Hospital "Old Captain" program for 10 years. UI athletics teamed with the UI Alumni Association on the "Black and Gold Friday" outreach program; partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation on "Extra Word for (K-12) Teachers" program; and partnered with select colleges on the staging of the first "Academic Day" as part of Homecoming in 2015.

Iowa's annual "Day of Caring" serves as the foundation upon which all these outreach activities rest. Now in its 21st year of existence, the Day of Caring happens each April and typically involves representatives of most, if not all, of Iowa's sports programs who provide a wide variety of assistance to an equally-wide variety of not-for-profit organizations that service the greater Iowa City community.

"Doing it Right" also encompasses efforts aimed at improving the student-athlete experience. The UI Athletics Department invested more than $1.7 million directly into food cost for its student-athletes in 2014-15 in response to NCAA legislation aimed at providing a higher quality student-athlete experience. That commitment will continue annually and is complemented by increases to the value of the scholarships awarded the UI's student-athletes as part of the NCAA's effort to fully address cost of attendance.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City community extends beyond his position as Director of the UI's Intercollegiate Athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to the UI's president.

Barta represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level as a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee. During his tenure, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network (BTN), the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences.

Barta remains active on the conference and NCAA level. He is involved in committee work with NCAA Football, the Division IA Athletic Directors Association, and is an ongoing participant in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, including the United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties and the Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the Department has completed a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different Wyoming coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fundraising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several Washington athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included managing corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

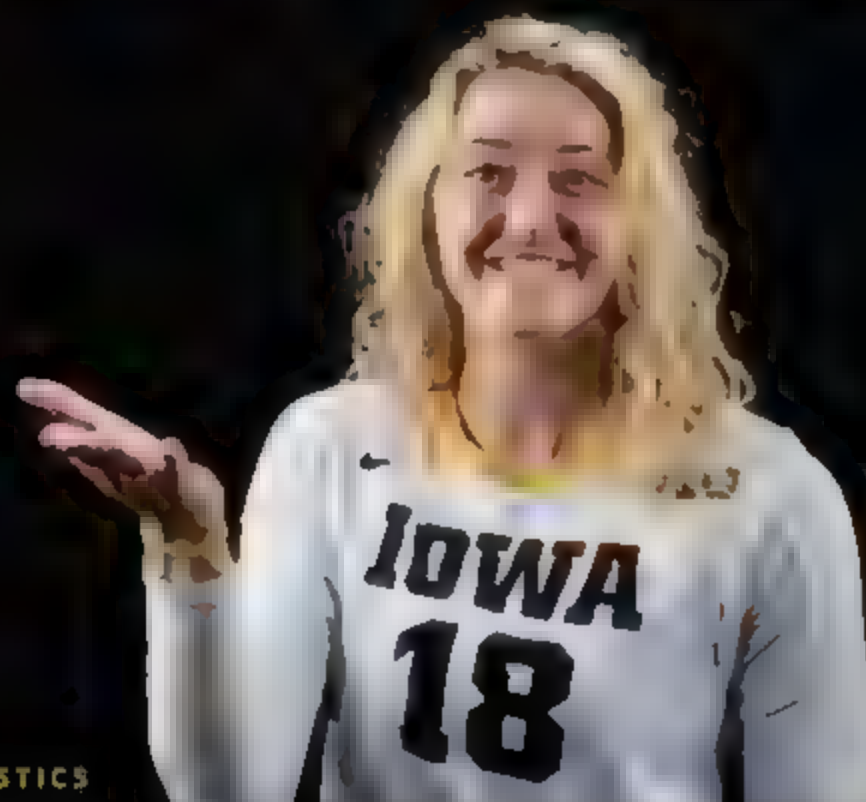

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University, and director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa.

Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from North Dakota State in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985, and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (18), and a daughter, Madison (15). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The University of Iowa Strength and Conditioning Department is committed to providing the ultimate training experience for each Hawkeye student-athlete. Our focus is the development of the complete student-athlete through the use of proven scientific methods for reducing the risk of injury, as well as maximizing each student-athlete's athletic potential.

We have four goals in our Strength and Conditioning Program:

1) INCREASE ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

Improve your game with better speed and explosive power.

2) DECREASE RATE OF INJURY

Significantly reduce your risk of joint and tendon injuries.

Build the right strength and flexibility in the upper body to create not only better arm strength for better arm and shoulder.

3) INCREASE SELF CONFIDENCE

There is a certain confidence in knowing you have prepared yourself and given yourself a chance to be successful.

4) IMPROVE MENTAL TOUGHNESS

We will not be distracted and will develop the ability to focus on the task at hand and not be deterred by every day highs and lows.

2016 EUROPEAN TOUR

From May 24-June 6 the Hawkeyes traveled to four different countries as part of the program's first European Tour. With stops in Germany, the Netherlands, Poland, and Ireland, the Hawkeyes squared off with professional and junior national teams to improve their game and bond as a unit.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center opened in the fall of 2003. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes. The facility is centrally located on the UI campus for easy access by all student-athletes and staff.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

The University of Iowa volleyball team takes tremendous pride and enjoyment in its charity and community service activities.

Iowa players have been actively involved in helping the Iowa Children's Museum, University of Iowa Dance Marathon, the Ronald McDonald House and the University of Iowa Children's Hospital.

The following is a list of just some of the community service activities the Hawkeye volleyball team has participated in throughout the Iowa City community.

- ✦ Assisted with the production of Baby Steps
- ✦ Proud supporter of the University of Iowa's Dance Marathon.
- ✦ Volunteer at the Iowa City Shelter House and Accas 2 Independence to support the university's Day of Caring
- ✦ Volunteer at local elementary schools
- ✦ Team with Johnson Co. Park Producers and Gamma Phi Sorority in a fundraiser for Heart Connections
- ✦ Volunteer at Greenwood Manor
- ✦ Volunteer at the University of Iowa Children's Hospital

IOWA VOLLEYBALL CAMPS

Many different age groups have the opportunity to participate in camps by attending Iowa volleyball camps and clinics. The staff of head coach Bond Shymansky, associate head coach Richard Fumler and assistant coach Bre Payton provide youth volleyball players with a fun, challenging and safe environment to learn and improve their skills.

USA VOLLEYBALL

Playing volleyball at the University of Iowa not only allows student-athletes the opportunity to compete in the nationally recognized Big Ten Conference. It also provides a chance to reach the next level of competition and expose your talents internationally.

In February of 2016, Lindsey Koske, Kasey Reuter, and Annika Olsen attended the U.S. Women's National Team tryout at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Iowa senior attended the tryout in the summer of 2014.

In 2011, Rachael Bedell and Bethany Yeager represented the University of Iowa and the United States while competing for Team USA. Bedell helped lead USA Volleyball Women's Junior A2-Europe Program to the Gold medal at the European Global Challenge.

Yeager reached the semifinals and captured a bronze medal while competing for USA Volleyball Women's

RADIO - INTERNET BROADCASTS

Hawkeye volleyball fans across the country unable to attend the excitement at Carver-Hawkeye Arena can follow the Hawkeyes via the world wide web on Hawkeye All-Access, the audio/video webstream provided by hawkeyesports.com. Fans in the Iowa City area can hear live broadcasts of Iowa's home and away matches on AM-800 KXIC.

TELEVISION

With the launch of the Big Ten Network, the Big Ten became the first conference network in the country that has its own national network devoted to Big Ten athletics programming. NCAA volleyball fans can follow the Hawkeyes and their Big Ten cohorts on the network in stunning hi-definition. Fans can also watch a number of games, including home and away events, on Hawkeye All-Access and at BTN.com.

HAWKEYESPORTS.COM

Media and fans can obtain a wealth of up-to-date information about the Hawkeyes on the official web site of the University of Iowa — hawkeyesports.com. Live stats (Gametracker), box scores, play-by-play, photo galleries, coach and bio information, video, podcasts and more can be found on the web site. The volleyball team also has its own facebook site (University of Iowa Volleyball) and twitter addresses (@iowavolleyball, @iowavb_live).

Furthermore, hawkeyesports.com has a fresh look after the site was re-designed and re-launched in the summer of 2014. The new and improved site has enhanced graphics, is easier to navigate, and has more content and video/audio for the diehard Hawkeye fan.

BIG TENBTN

A joint venture between the Big Ten Conference and Fox Networks, BTN is the first internationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conferences in the country. With more than 800 events, all in HD, the 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country, allowing them to see their favorite team's volleyball matches, regardless of where they live.

Events include football, men's and women's basketball games; dozens of Big Ten Championship events; studio shows; coaches' shows; and classic games. The network televises and streams more Olympic sporting events and women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network.

Original programming highlights activities and accomplishments of some of the nation's finest universities. The groundbreaking Student U initiative provides real-world experience for students interested in careers in sports television. The network is available to more than 80 million homes across the United States and Canada, and currently has agreements with more than 300 affiliates, including AT&T U-Verse, Atlantic Broadband, Cablevision, Charter, Comcast, Cox, DirecTV, DISH Network, Insight, Mediacom, Rogers Cable (Canada), Shaw Cable and Shaw Direct (Canada), Time Warner Cable and Verizon FiOS. IOWA CONTINUES TO BUILD FOR SUCCESS

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Bowin and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2015-16.

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 78 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in the fall of 2009), meaning UI student-athletes have graduated at a rate of 78 percent or better in five straight years. For the sixth consecutive year, all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark and the program posted a record 89 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate." That mark tied a school record. It's the 13th time in 12 years of the GRI's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

Seven UI teams scored a perfect 100 on their GSI: men's basketball, field hockey, men's golf, women's golf, men's tennis, field hockey, women's golf, women's tennis, and volleyball. All counted, the GSI for 17 of Iowa's 24 teams was better than the national average among its peer sport group.

Athletically, Hawkeye teams enjoyed another outstanding year in 2015-16, as a significant number of level 24 programs reached postseason play. The Iowa football team played in the 2016 Rose Bowl Game, the UI men's basketball team advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament for a second straight year, the women's basketball team advanced to the postseason for a ninth consecutive season, the wrestling team had three NCAA final appearances en route to a fifth place finish at the NCAA Championships, the women's gymnastics team advanced to NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in eight seasons and the men's golf team qualified for NCAA for an eighth straight year.

Facilities upgrades remain at the forefront with Carver-Hawkeye Arena being the latest facility combining an upgrade with new LED video technology being installed by Bohannon. The new four-sided centerhung video system is the centerpiece of the installation, while four auxiliary displays — two on each end of the arena — will also be installed. The Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center installed PlayRight Smart Court Technology — a video component with live streaming capabilities, transforming the HRC into a fully interactive practice and competition venue.

The gymnastics practice venues inside the UI Fieldhouse were completely renovated more than doubling the training space for the men's and women's programs, and a second indoor practice facility was constructed on the west campus — Ryan Yell — for sports like baseball, softball, and soccer in a partnership with recreation services.

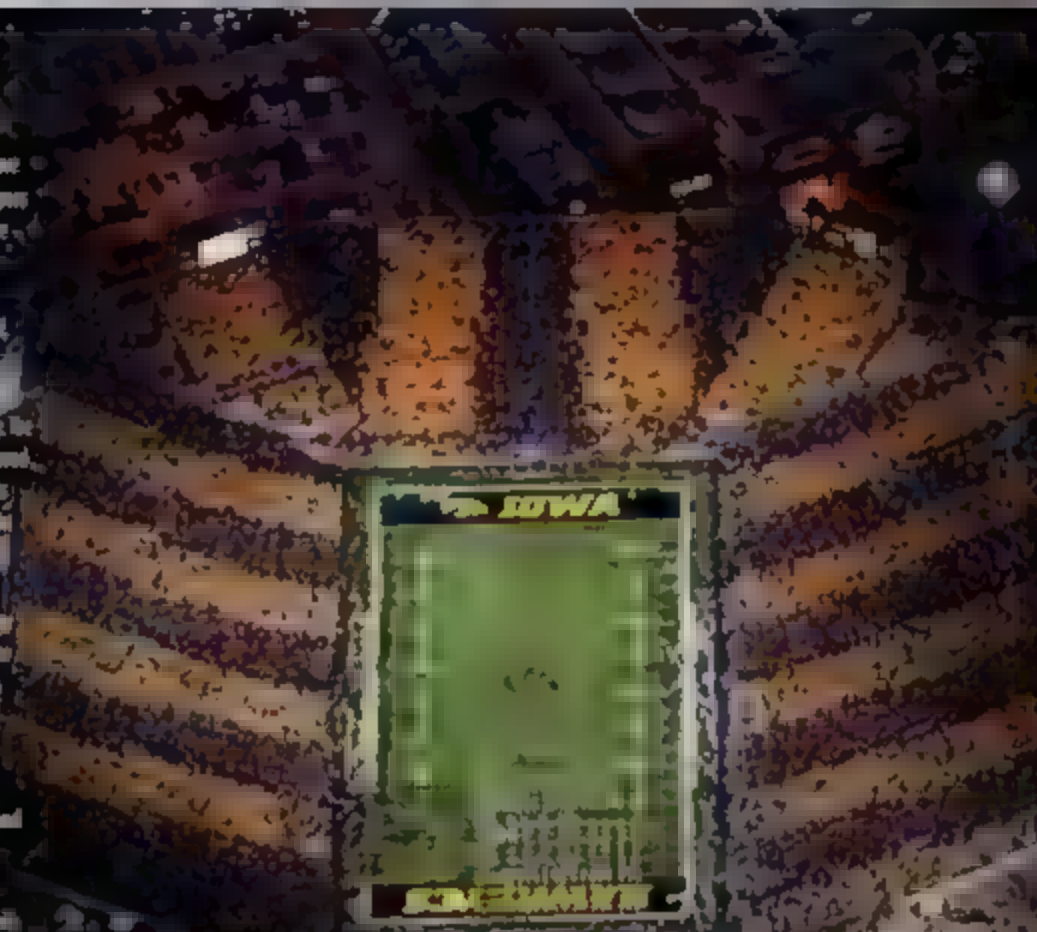

Renovations continue with a north end zone project at Hawk Stadium on the Indians, a new football track in the UI Recreation Building, a new clubhouse at Hoblitzel Golf Course, and a renovation to the Gordon Fieldhouse Learning Center — the home to the UI's Athletic Student Services.

IOWA FOOTBALL

The Iowa football team went 12-4 during the regular season en route to the Big Ten West Division title and played in the 2016 Rose Bowl Game. Junior defensive back Darnell May earned consensus All-American honors while winning the Jim Thorpe Trophy and being recognized as the Eastern Division Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

UI head coach Lisa Bluder led the women's basketball team to the postseason for a sixth consecutive season. These Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, six women Academic All-Big Ten selections, and junior Abby Schuchman earned Academic All-American honors for the second straight year of play. The Kalamazoo, MI, forward led the team.

IOWA WRESTLING

The Hawkeyes finished the 2015-16 season as the Big Ten team owner-up and finished fifth at the NCAA Championships, Iowa crowned two Big Ten individual champions, featured three NCAA finalists, and had six All-Americans. The program set a national dual meet attendance record when 42,307 were on hand to see the Hawkeyes defeat top-ranked Minnesota State in Hawk Stadium to open the season.

IOWA WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

The Gymnastics advanced to NCAA Regionals for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, hosting the event in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in 2016. Mollie Smith represented the program at the NCAA Championships where she earned first-team All-American honors — Iowa's first All-American since 2004.

IOWA MEN'S BASKETBALL

26th-year head coach Fran McCaffery led the men's basketball team to the NCAA Tournament for a third straight season, winning its opening game for a second consecutive year before a second round loss to eventual NCAA champion, Villanova. The Hawkeyes were ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation while earning a third-place Big Ten finish. Two players earned All-Big Ten recognition.

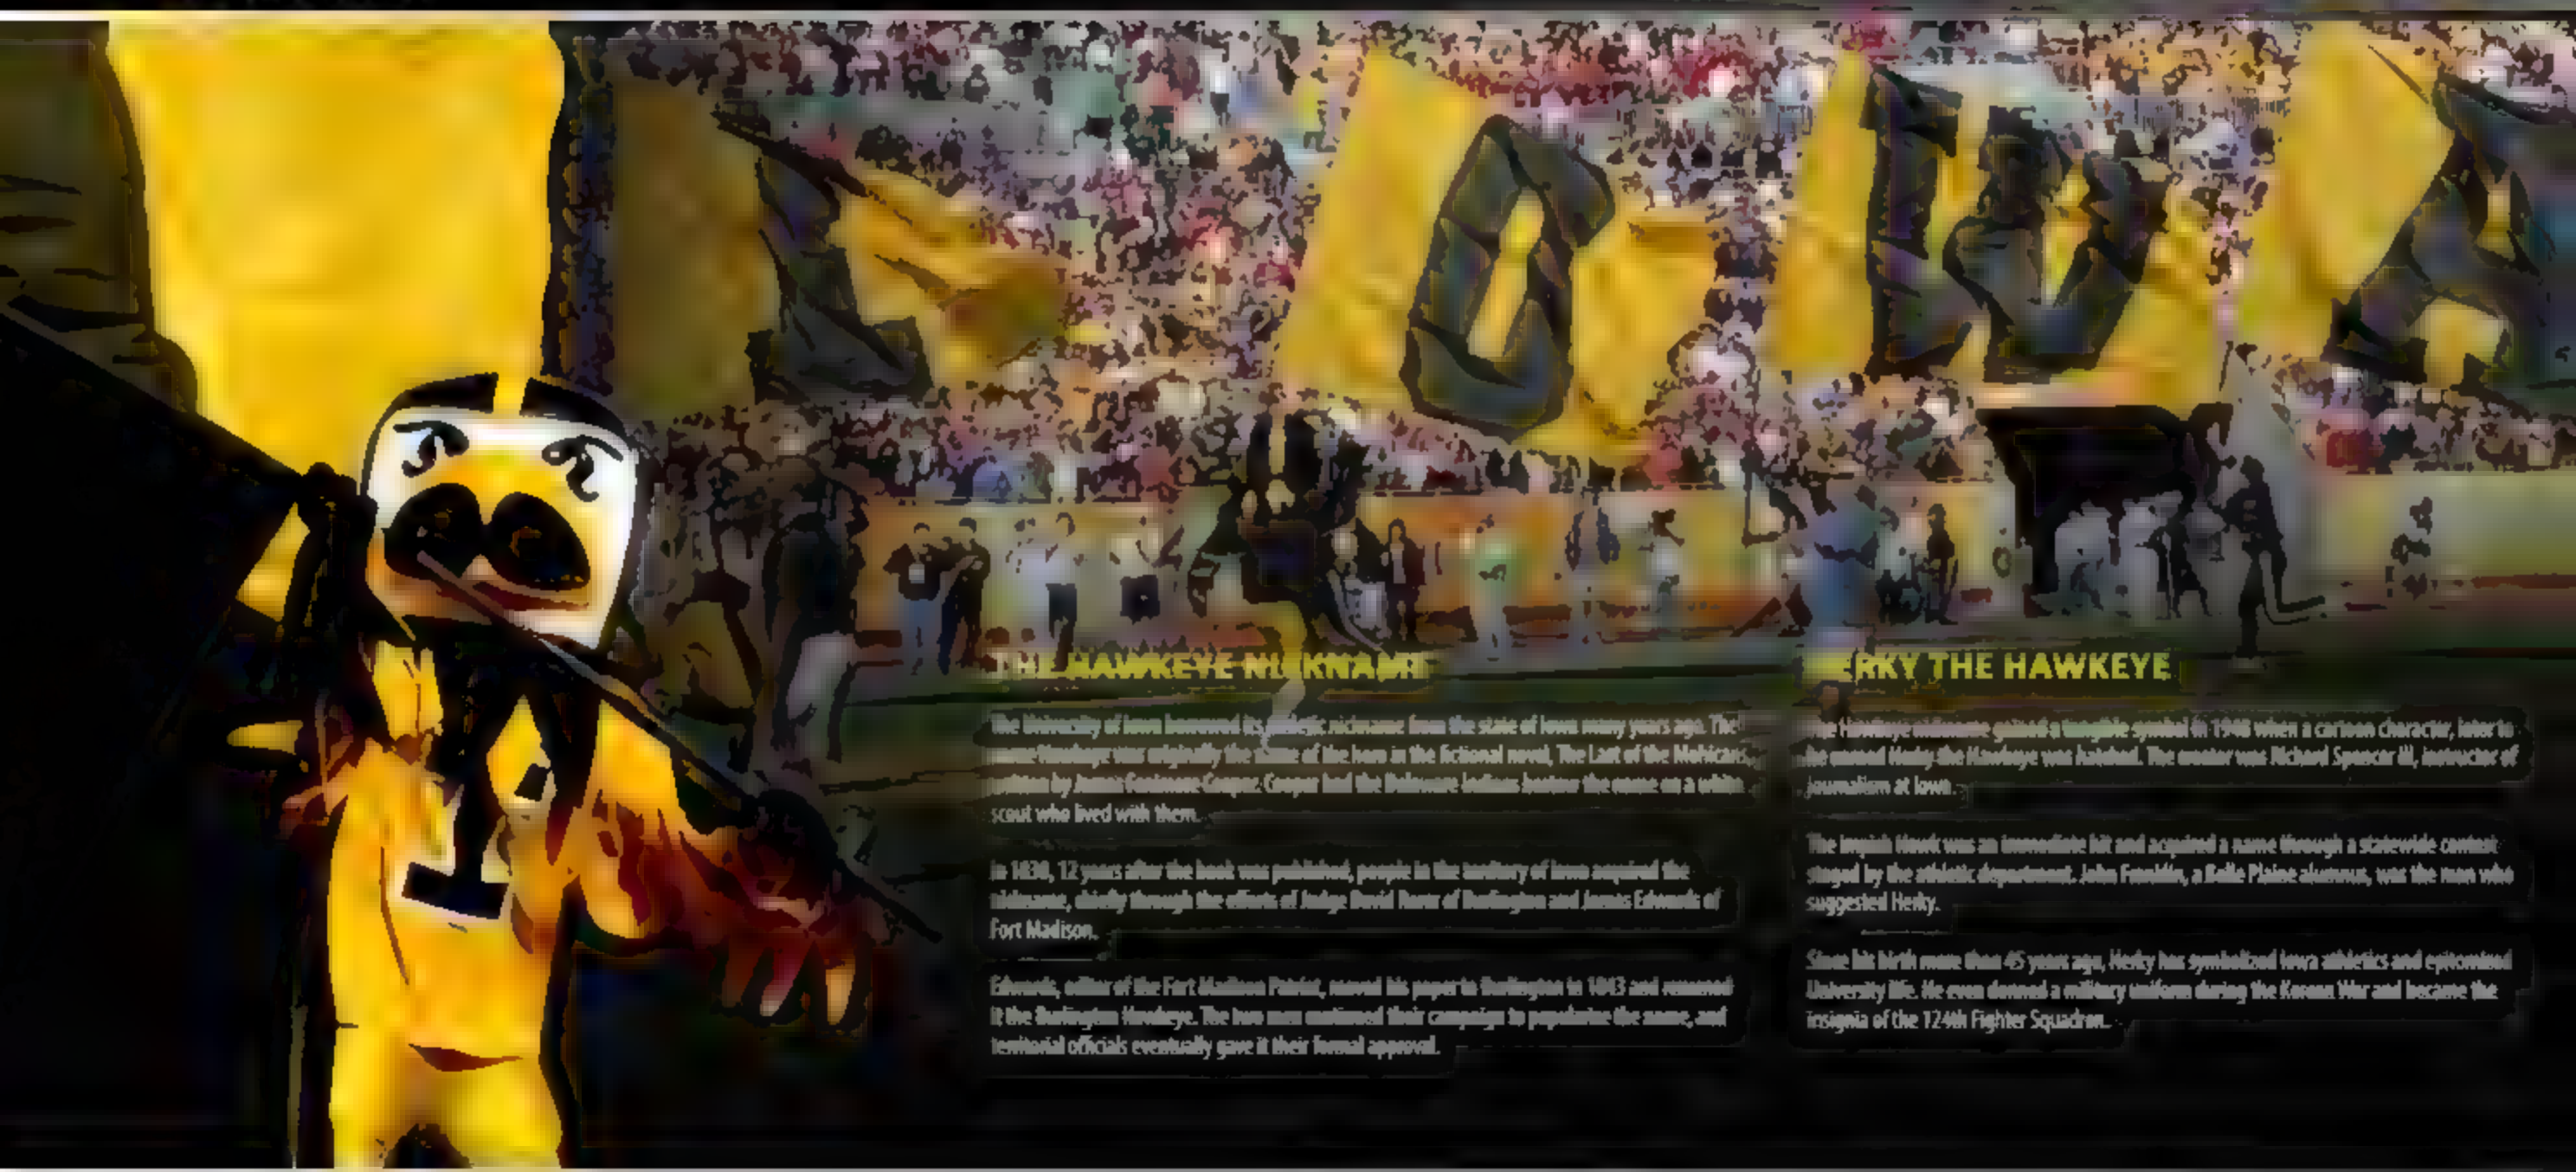

IOWA MEN'S AND WOMEN'S GOLF

Head coach Tyler Smith led the Hawkeyes to their eighth straight NCAA Regional appearance in 2016 and Iowa was the team owner-up at the Big Ten Championships. Senior Amy Han qualified individually for the NCAA Tournament, becoming the first UI women's golfer to compete in NCAA postseason competition since 1998 and just the second in program history.

IOWA TRACK & FIELD

The Hawkeyes had a record number of NCAA performers at the 2016 NCAA Championships with 15 student-athletes advancing to Eugene, Oregon. Iowa claimed Big Ten champions in four events, including the men's 400-meter relay and women's 1,600-meter relay.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Porter of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

HERKY THE HAWKEYE

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of Journalism at Iowa.

The Inquisit Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Ball State alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

DID YOU KNOW

45.7 percent of UI students are from out of state.

25 University of Iowa graduate programs and colleges ranked among the top 25 in the nation.

U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2015

With over 31,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (2.7 %) ranks among the nation's lowest. (May, 2015).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges and colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

As one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, the University of Iowa is also a leader in space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science, and communication studies. The University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa continued its tradition as an innovator in research in speech pathology, science and medicine. The University is also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest university-owned hospitals.

Student Diversity at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, ethnic, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, carefree spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference.

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, ensuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic careers at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

When a student-athlete considers her future, she should consider prospects beyond volleyball. She should consider where she wants to be five, ten, fifteen years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, she should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields. They also pursued their academic studies as strongly as the Iowa Hawkeyes go after a loose ball or rebound.
